

Get to know someone with a disABILITY and you'll see just what they, "Can Do, Like You!" One way, is by taking the time to get to know the group members at Creative Opportunities (CO). CO is a Non-Vocational Day Service provided by PCBDD. Located at the Activity Center on St. Rt. 345, CO offers individuals the opportunity to participate in non-work related activities and interests.

Meet Anna:

Anna enjoys spending time with her family and friends, when she is not busy with other activities. Besides attending CO, Anna stays busy with her part-time job at Hair Expressions, as well as being a cheerleader for the Perry Co. Cougars basketball team. Having lived in New Lexington her entire life, Anna is a huge fan of the Panthers, and is proud of the time she spent in the NLHS Marching Band, where she played the cymbals. Some of Anna's favorite activities while at CO include cooking club, playing basketball in the gym, and drawing. She especially likes to decorate lunch bags for the Senior Center lunch program, and the bags for the Cancer Resource Center at Fairfield Medical Center.
