

Cougars tops at annual Community Game

The Perry County Cougars played in their annual Community Game last Thursday, where they competed against over 35 members of the community. The game, which took place on March 1 at New Lexington High School is the kick off March as Development Disability Awareness Month.

The Cougars commanded the game grabbing the first points and putting themselves on the board seconds into the game.

SEE COUGARS ON PAGE B2

The Perry County Cougars took on members of the community in the annual Community Basketball Game held last week at New Lexington High School. The Cougars won the game, the annual kick off event of DD Awareness Month, by a final score of 80-57.

PHOTOS BY BILL ROCKWELL/TRIBUNE REPORTER
Bobby "Ball Handler" Brunton (#18) goes to the basket with teammate Bryan "Three-Point" Meyer backing him up during the recent Community Game held at New Lexington High School.