What is the most important thing you learned from ALA?

The most important thing that I learned is that you must put trust in people when you don't want to.

What learned from ALA is that to keep integrity through your everyday life(rest of your life).

The most important thing I learned in ALA is how to become a better person

You don't have to be the person everyone thinks you are. You can be you and show others who you really are.

I have to try to be the best I can be

I have learned how to become a leader and when to use it .

to be a good person

I can be myself and not be who people think of me. Also I have to be the change I want to see in the world

That I don't have to be the person people think I am.

How to take responsibility in my actions.

You don't have to be what everyone thinks you are

I can become a leader if I live with Integrity and I realize it doesn't matter what other people think about me

I have learned that I need to be more willing to socialize with people

Integrity and how to trust more people

The most important thing I have learned is you don't have to be what people think you are.

The Most important thing I have learned is Integrity, using that in everyday life and that I don't have to be someone I'm not.

to be a better leader and Stay a leader and I want to talk to people that are Nice

I have learned I have to be better than my past.

To be more brave and to be the change you want to see.

What I have learned is Integrity

The most important thing I have learned from ALA is to have integrity.

How to have integrity and use it in the right way

How to learn to earn integrity and how to trust.

to be respectful

I have learned that I don't have to be what people want me to be and I can be my own person

Integrity

Stands up for what they believe will tell you right, from wrong And will lead you Down the right path And will risk there life for you and think outside the Box

Stands out in the crowd

Takes responsibility and who helps people.

Knows what's right or wrong

Takes Charge but works with people and doesn't order them around

Is by my side in the toughest of times

Helps me through life and Show me right from wrong.

is always doing the right thing

I am a leader.
