

Children's Program Survey Results 2019

PCBDD received responses from 13 people....including parents, guardians and family members of individuals enrolled in Children's Programs.

100% of the respondents are satisfied with services provided by the Children's Program.

100% of the respondents needs were addressed promptly.

100% of respondents feel that the funding provided by the Family Selected Supports (FSS) Program helps meet their child's/family's needs.

100% of respondents understand what services are available for their child through the PCBDD.

Here's what else our respondents said about PCBDD Children's Programs

